Dear Dara,

I am just writing to thank you for your help in recent the sale of my property.

Dhillon Real Estate is like a breath of fresh air in the area. I did not have to put up with endless people coming into the house, people coming around unannounced, or any of the other usual inconveniences and time-wasters associated with the selling of a property. Only genuinely interested people viewed the property, by appointment, and it was sold to the third prospective buyer at the price I was looking for.

The property was put on the market in early January and I received a firm offer before the end of the month. By the 21st of March I had vacated the property and handed over the keys to the new owner.

I was constantly kept informed, in person, as to what was going on and furthermore I did not have my property displayed in newspaper advertisements, so my privacy and security was maintained – which was important to me.

All in all I was totally satisfied with Dhillon Real Estate and would not hesitate to recommend their friendly and personal service to anyone considering the sale of their property.

Once again, thanks for everything.
